

Centar za građansko obrazovanje
Centre for civic education

Podgorica, 9 January, 2011

DOCUMENTARIES FROM THE FAST FORWARD HUMAN RIGHTS FILM FESTIVAL AT THE LIST OF THE 20 BEST DOCUMENTARIES IN THE 2011 YEAR

Centre for Civic Education (CCE) is pleased to inform the public that one of the most prestigious websites Movies.com focused on film critic, included in its list of the 20 best documentaries in the 2011, documentaries that were screened at the recently closed Fast Forward Human Rights Film Festival, organized by the CCE.

The movies that were selected are "Into Eternity" by Michael Madsen from Denmark and "Nostalgia for the light" by Patricio Guzman from Chile with which this year edition of the Festival was officially closed. For more information please visit www.ubrzej.me.

We remind that the Fast Forward Film Festival was conducted from 10 to 15 December 2011. During the six festival days, through three thematic parts as follows Posttraumatic societies, Paradoxes of globalization and Voices of the margins, Montenegrin public had a chance to see a rich programme of 16 extraordinary movies of the latest productions that have already got numerous nominations and awards around the world.

The aim of the Fast Forward Film Festival is to make visible the issue of human rights in Montenegro in a different and creative manner, as well as to present the experiences of others in order to encourage citizens to take their own initiatives that we as a society are missing.

CCE will, in cooperation with its partners, continue the screenings of the latest and best films in the field of human rights through the Fast Forward Film Festival.

Danilo Ajkovic
PR/Programme associate