

Centar za građansko obrazovanje
Centre for civic education

Podgorica, 22/4/2012

Grand prix for the video „ We are part of the team”

The Centre of Civic Education (CCE) and LGBT Forum Progress are continuously working on enhancing knowledge and understanding of human rights in Montenegro, from various aspects. In that regard, one of the joint project was “U redu je biti drugačiji!” (It is OK to be different!), with the support of the Embassy of Canada.

The results of the campaign are positive, and the video "Mi smo dio ekipe" (We are part of the team) that promotes LGBT rights, produced as part of this project, has recorded an outstanding result on Festival of creative industries FORFEST Festival 2012, held in Budva from 19 to 21 April, 2012.

The project “It is OK to be different!” aims to increase capacities for the protection of human rights, with a special focus on the rights of LGBT population. The commercial, produced by the Centre for Civic Education, LGBT Forum Progress and Koala Production and authored by Danilo Marunovic, helps raising awareness on the topic and on the prejudices still present in Montenegro against LGBT people.

The video “We are part of the team” was awarded the Grand Prix in the competition of 110 companies from 8 different countries took part, thus giving attention on the topic not only locally but also from a regional and international point of view, strengthening the aims and goals of our projects and organizations on a wider scale. At the award ceremony, apart of author Danilo Marunovic, there were Zdravko Cimbaljevic from the LGBT Forum Progres and Daliborka Uljarevic from the CCE.

Damir Nikočević, PR manager/Programme associate